

A day to discover Bordeaux and the Cité du Vin

9.30 am Meet our guide and start the day with a city tour by bus*

Suggested itinerary:

This tour offers you a panorama of the architectural trends of the city of the middle Ages to the present day. It crosses one of the largest private sectors of France. Passing over the Jacques Chaban-Delmas bridge will take you over to the right bank of the Garonne River, from where you will be able to appreciate the architectural unity of the sumptuous 18th century building façade as well as the ambitious works projects by highly-regarded international designers and architects.

Then, a walking tour at the end of the bus tour, to discover a part of the old Bordeaux.
