

Discover the mythical Route des Chateaux : the Médoc

HALF-DAY TOUR

(morning or afternoon)

Located northwest of Bordeaux, between the Atlantic Ocean and the Gironde estuary, the Médoc is one of the most prestigious wine regions in the world. A land of excellence and tradition, which is home to some of the most famous châteaux in the Bordeaux region.

The Médoc vineyards are divided into eight communal and regional appellations: Médoc, Haut-Médoc, Margaux, Moulis-en-Médoc, Listrac-Médoc, Saint-Julien, Pauillac, and Saint-Estèphe. Each has its own identity, style, and unique terroirs, but all share ancestral know-how and a constant commitment to quality.

Suggestion of program:

2:00 pm	Departure from Bordeaux with our guide
3.00 pm	Visit a Classified Growth estate, followed by a tasting
4:30 pm	Visit a familial property, with tasting (different appellation)
Around 7.00 pm	Return to Bordeaux

This tour can also be offered as a full-day excursion: three properties visited, with different aspects of vineyard and wine production discussed at each one.

Lunch with various options depending on your budget: traditional restaurant, picnic, or meal in a château.

We will tailor your trip according to the options you choose and your budget.
